Wonderlic Loss Prevention Survey (WLPS)

Align loss prevention strategies by monitoring employee behavior, compliance and opinions.

Description

The WLPS interactive survey system is designed to help your company identify those critical issues that impact the entire organization.

- Identify a need to change, modify or update current policies and procedures
- Reinforce current policies and procedures through communication and training
- Launch internal investigations with information that helps pinpoint the source and scope of shrinkage
- Capture employee recommendations, ideas and suggestions for reducing shrinkage

Content

A well-conducted employee survey provides valuable information relating to employee integrity and ethical behaviors including internal theft, risk management and overall adherence to company policies and procedures.

This allows you to:

- Learn the value employees attach to different policies and procedures
- Implement timely change
- Link survey results to important business outcomes such as shrinkage
- Observe long-term trends
- Assess the level of employee satisfaction and morale

The Wonderlic Loss Prevention Survey can include standardized or customized questions.

Implementation

Wonderlic loss prevention consultants makes it easy to track employee feedback by administering the survey, monitoring its progress, analyzing survey data and making recommendations for organizational improvements.

You can choose to have your employees participate in the survey using the Internet or paper and pencil.
